

Academy of Geriatric Physical Therapy 2019 GERINOTES AD RATES

About Our Advertising Opportunities

GeriNotes, the newsletter for the Academy of Geriatric Physical Therapy, is published five times a year and is distributed to over 5,500 physical therapists, physical therapist assistants, and other health care providers interested in the area of geriatric physical therapy. Advertise your continuing education courses, job openings, clinical research, practice/lab products in these publications to reach this specialized segment of the PT market.

About the Academy

Geriatrics, health care concerned with the aging, is a rapidly growing specialty in physical therapy. The Academy supports those therapists, assistants, and students that work with an aging population in roles of advocacy, direct patient care, consultation, supervision, and education. The Academy was formed in 1978 to address the needs of the physical therapy practitioner working with the aging client. The Academy represents and serves over 5,500 members with a wide array of services and benefits.

DISCLAIMER

APTA is opposed, as a matter of health care policy, to arrangements under which sources of referral (including physicians) stand to profit from referring patients for physical therapy. The policy, adopted by the House of Delegates, states: "The American Physical Therapy Association opposes...participation in services that is in any way linked to the financial gain of the referral source." Financial Considerations in Practice (HOD 06-99-13-17). Because of this policy, the Academy of Geriatric Physical Therapy does not accept job listing for positions in a practice if any physician has a financial interest in the practice and refers patients to an employed physical therapist or to a physical therapist who supervises an employed physical therapist assistant.

_____ (initial/date) I certify that no referral source (including a referral physician) has a financial interest in the practice that is the subject of this advertisement.
